

Challenging behaviours: The benefits, problems and complexities of medication in children and adolescents with intellectual disabilities

Organised by the Intellectual Disability Forum

Monday 20 November 2017

8.15 am	Registration for masterclass
8.30–9 am	SpR masterclass – Forensic neuropsychological assessment of adolescents with brain injury Dr Natalie Novick Brown, Associate Professor in Psychiatry, University of Washington, Seattle
8.30 am	Registration, tea and coffee for main conference
9.00 am	Introduction and review of co-occurring psychiatric disorders in children and adolescents with intellectual disability Dr Kieran O'Malley, President, Intellectual Disability Forum, RSM and Joint Conference Organiser
9.15 am	General overview of medication in challenging behaviours in children and adolescents with intellectual disability Professor Paramala Santosh, South London and Maudsley NHS Foundation Trust
10.05 am	Panel discussion
10.20 am	Tea and coffee break
10.50 am	Management of genetic disorder: Fragile X syndrome Professor Jeremy Turk, Consultant Child and Adolescent Psychiatrist, St George's University of London
11.30 am	Management of epigenetic disorder neurodevelopmental disorder prenatal alcohol exposure (NDPAE) or foetal alcohol spectrum disorders (FASDs). Summary of recent NICE guidelines consensus document on ADHD and FASDs/ NDPAE Dr Kieran O'Malley
12.00 pm	Question and answer session
12.15 pm	Lunch
1.05 pm	Introduction

Dr Ama S Addo, Child and Adolescent and Intellectual Disabilities
Psychiatrist, NHS GGC and Joint Conference Organiser

- 1.15 pm Complexity of capacity, consent and medication management in aggressive violent adolescents with organic brain dysfunction, especially NDPAE
Dr Natalie Novick Brown, Associate Professor in Psychiatry,
University of Washington, Seattle
- 2.15 pm Short film documentary: Mate crime: Young adults with intellectual disability who are manipulated by peers
David George, Director, Isle of Wight
- 2.45 pm Tea and coffee break
- 3.10 pm Positive effect of medication in changing life course of challenging behaviours in children and adolescents to adulthood
Dr Marinos Kyriakopoulos, Consultant Child and Adolescent
Psychiatrist, National and Specialist Inpatient Children's Unit, Acorn
Lodge
- 3.40 pm Joint neurology and psychiatry assessment and management of challenging behaviours in learning disability
Dr Andreas Brunklaus, Consultant in Paediatric Neurology, Royal Hospital for Children, Glasgow and Dr Ama S Addo
- 4.10 pm Off-license and off-label usage of medication in children and adolescents
Dr Aditya Sharma, Consultant and Honorary Clinical Senior Lecturer in Child and Adolescent Psychiatry, Newcastle University
- 4.40 pm Panel discussion of selected cases
Chair: Dr Kieran O'Malley
Panel: Dr Natalie Novick Brown, Dr Penny Gibson, Developmental Paediatrician, Royal Surrey County Hospital NHS Foundation Trust,
Dr Ama S Addo and Dr Andreas Brunklaus
- 5.00 pm Close of meeting