

The Private & Independent Practice Special Interest Group (PIPSIG) invites you to a

CPD EDUCATIONAL MEETING

FRIDAY evening 27th & SATURDAY morning 28th September 2019
Sandymount Hotel, Dublin 4

Please book & pay online, or return the booking form & payment to secure your place

DATE:	Friday 27 th & Saturday 28 th September 2019
VENUE:	Oakland Suite, Sandymount Hotel , Herbert Road, Dublin 4 (beside Aviva Stadium)
FEE:	€110:	Friday and Saturday academic sessions (attending both)
	€55:	Friday academic session only
	€70:	Saturday academic session only
CPD:	2	External OR Internal CPD Credits – Friday session
	3	External OR Internal CPD credits – Saturday session
TIMES:	Friday:	17:30–18:00	Registration & coffee
		18:00-20:00	Academic session
	Saturday:	09:00–09:30	Registration & coffee
		09:30-10.30	Academic session
		10.30-11.00	Coffee. PIPSIG Business meeting (for PIPSIG members)
		11:00-13:00	Academic session

CPD PROGRAMME Friday & Saturday

FRIDAY evening 27th September: 18:00 - 20:00 hrs, Oakland Suite

Human Rights – Rhetoric and Reality

Prof Brendan Kelly, Professor of Psychiatry TCD and Consultant Psychiatrist, Tallaght University Hospital, Dublin.

Winding Down – Preparing for the Transition to Retirement

Prof James Lucey, Medical Director and Consultant Psychiatrist, St Patrick's University Hospital, Dublin

SATURDAY morning 28th September: 09:30 – 13:00 hrs, Oakland Suite

Training for the Mind – Mental Health & Sports

Dr Abbie Lane, Consultant Psychiatrist, The Gulliver Clinic, Dublin

10:30-11:00: Coffee break. PIPSIG Business Meeting (for members of PIPSIG)

Whistleblowing & Mental Health

Dr Tom Clonan, Security Analyst; Author; Lecturer, School of Media, Dublin Institute of Technology

Early Onset Dementia, Parkinson's Disease, and other organic diseases

Dr Jennifer Hoblyn, Consultant Psychiatrist and Clinical Director, Bloomfield Health Services, Dublin; Clinical Senior lecturer, Department of Psychiatry, TCD

SPEAKERS

DR TOM CLONAN served as an Officer in the Irish Army from 1989 to 2000. He has experience of conflict in Ireland, the Middle East and Bosnia. He now lectures at the School of Media DIT in Journalism, Political Communication, Public Affairs and Research Methodology. He is also a Security Analyst, writing for publications such as The Irish Times and TheJournal.ie. Cited by Amnesty as a target of whistleblower reprisal in the aftermath of the publication of his research, Tom has written about the experience in the print media and in peer-reviewed academic publications. His experiences have also been the subject of two documentaries, Whistleblowers (2007) on RTÉ Radio and Whistleblowers (2015) on TV3. He has written two books, Blood, Sweat and Tears (2012) and Whistleblower, Soldier, Spy (2013).

DR. JENNIFER HOBLYN is a Consultant Psychiatrist and the Clinical Director of Bloomfield Health Services. She is a Clinical Senior lecturer in the Department of Psychiatry, TCD. After completing a Fellowship in New York, she undertook further post graduate work in Epidemiology and Biostatistics in Berkeley, California. She then worked as the Clinical Director of Inpatient, Liaison and Emergency Psychiatry services in Palo Alto and as an Assistant Professor at Stanford University prior to returning home to Ireland in 2012. At Bloomfield she has developed a Multidisciplinary Treatment Team, a 19 bed unit for those with HD, a 16 week Intensive Program for those with HD, a HD Café based on the successful AD model and the Team is now planning Day Services for those with HD and their caregivers. She is a member of the Behavioral working group of the European Huntington's disease Network and a member of the Huntington's disease Study Group of America.

PROF BRENDAN KELLY FRCPsych FRCPI is Professor of Psychiatry at Trinity College Dublin and Consultant Psychiatrist at Tallaght University Hospital. Professor Kelly has authored and co-authored over 200 peer-reviewed papers and 300 non-peer-reviewed papers, as well as a number of book chapters and books. His most recent books are Mental Health in Ireland: The Complete Guide for Patients, Families and Healthcare Professionals (Liffey Press) and The Doctor Who Sat For A Year (Gill, 2019).

PROFESSOR ABBIE LANE, MD LRCPSI FRCPsych is an Associate Professor at UCD and an Honorary Fellow of the Faculty of Sports and Exercise Medicine, RCSI. As well as running her own clinic she is an Associate Dean with the St. Patrick's Mental Health Services. She completed her medical education at The Royal College of Surgeons in Dublin and has worked as a Consultant Psychiatrist since 1996. Her specialist areas include the assessment and management of stress related illness including work stress. She is known for her holistic approach to mental health and her interest in the interaction between physical and mental health. Her book 'The Stress Handbook: managing stress for healthy living' was published by Open Press in 2018.

PROF. JIM LUCEY is Medical Director of St Patrick's Mental Health Services, Dublin, since 2008, and Clinical Professor of Psychiatry at Trinity College Dublin. He has been working for more than 30 years with patients suffering from mental health problems. In addition to medical management, he maintains his clinical practice at St Patrick's, where he specialises in the assessment, diagnosis and management of Obsessive Compulsive Disorder (OCD) and other anxiety disorders. He gives public lectures and is a regular broadcaster on mental health matters on RTÉ radio, featuring on 'Today with Sean O'Rourke'.