

EIP National Clinical Programme Network Webinar Agenda

Date: Friday 1st December 2023 Time: 9.30am – 1pm

Platform: Webex -pre-registration required. Click on the link to register.

<https://hse.webex.com/weblink/register/r614e14625de5b98df90522f5eba2bc39>

Agenda

9.30am EIP NCP Update
Dr. Karen O Connor, National Clinical Lead

10am Plans for the development of Youth Mental Health Services in Ireland
Dr. Mark Smyth Chair: Youth and Transition Group Sharing the Vision

Irish Psychosis Research Network (IPRN)

11am – 12.30

Research presentations (15 mins per presentation)

- Brian O'Donoghue (UCD & St Vincent's hospital) –Achieving recovery in psychotic disorders with comprehensive clinical guidelines.
- David Mongan (Queens University Belfast and RCSI)- Longitudinal trajectories of plasma polyunsaturated fatty acids and associations with psychosis-spectrum outcomes in early adulthood
- Megan Cowman (University of Galway) – Development of a brief assessment of cognitive function in early psychosis.
- Ken O'Reilly (HSE, NFMHS and TCD) – Neuropsychological informed psychoeducation for psychosis in a forensic setting.
- Subash Susai (RCSI)- Clinical importance of Complement pathway proteins in early psychosis (UHR and FEP)?
- Harriet Lovett (HRB)- Trends in admissions with psychosis over the past 10 years.

12.30: Questions and Answers

12.45pm: Close